CLINICIAN DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

My name is Brian Milliken, I am a Professional Clinical Counselor and Marriage and Family Therapist. My counseling approach is solution focused and strength based. My counseling style is collaborative which means that I work with each client in a way that may increase possibilities of relational harmony. My counseling expertise is in creating a conversational space that may enrich each client's possibility of handling current and future difficulties. Clients that have issues beyond my scope of practice will be referred to other counselors who are specialized in those areas.

I hold the following credentials:

Eastern Washington University: 1995 B.A. Psychology

University of Louisiana at Monroe: 1997 M.A. Marriage and Family Therapy

New Mexico Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist 0157981

New Mexico Licensed Professional Clinical Counselor 0157201

Certified Employee Assistance Professional 0043770

To maintain my license, I am required to participate in annual continuing education by taking classes relevant to my profession.

My fee is $150 per 50 minute session, or in the case of insurances, the in-network rate contracted by your insurance company. If an EAP program referred you, there is no fee while covered under EAP sessions. Cancellations without prior 24 hour notice may count as an authorized session, as part of EAP guidelines. Continuing treatment beyond any authorized EAP sessions may be picked up by your insurance company, and you would be responsible for any fees, copays or deductibles which your insurance company does not cover.

As a licensee of the New Mexico Counseling and Therapy Practice Board, I will abide by its Code of Ethics.

As a client of a New Mexico licensee you have the following rights:

- 1) To expect that a licensee has met the minimal qualifications of training and experience required by state law;
- 2) To examine public records maintained by the Board and to have the Board confirm credentials of a licensee;
- 3) To obtain a copy of the Code of Ethics;
- 4) To report complaints to the Board;
- 5) To be informed of the cost of professional services before receiving the services;
- 6) To be assured of privacy and confidentiality while receiving services as defined by rule and law, including the following exceptions: a) Reporting suspected child abuse; b) Reporting imminent danger to client or others; c) Reporting information required in court proceedings or by client's insurance company, or other relevant agencies; d) providing information concerning licensee case consultation or supervision; and e) Defending claims brought by client against licensee;
- 7) To be free from being the object of discrimination on the basis of race, religion, gender, or other unlawful category while receiving services.

You may contact the New Mexico Counseling and Therapy Practice Board at 2550 Cerrillos Road Santa Fe, NM 87504 Telephone: (505) 476-4610.
